Team Consulting, LLC: 'Valuation of Renewable Energy'

Date and Time

Thursday, May 30, 2024
9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. (Mountain)

Online/virtual webinar

Requirements for This Webinar

- A reliable, high-speed internet connection
- Speakers or headphones
- A working microphone and webcam are encouraged, but not required.

Webinar Description

- This webinar explores the valuation concepts and issues in the growing field of renewable energy. Initially, these types of properties received tax incentives that exempted the property from property taxes. These facilities are now transitioning to the tax roll and many states are revising their treatment of this property type. This webinar will review the various types of renewable energy facilities, how to handle listing them on the tax roll, and strategies for developing accurate valuations.
